Summer visitors are beginning to inquire as to when the Bath House will be opened for the season, and who will be in charge this year.

James Redfern Mason (we call him Jim here), musical critic of the S. F. Examiner, was a week-end visitor.

Vashi, he of the splendid bass voice, who has been away for several months, is here for the summer. He is sharing quarters with George Seideneck.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Hooper are here from San Francisco for a ten days' stay. They convey the interesting news that their youngest daughter, Ursula, is to be married in the Fall. The lucky man is Mr. Chouteau Johnson of New York, now of San Francisco, with the Standard Oil Co.

Mrs. Lawrence Leidig is planning to leave shortly for a three months' visit with her mother in Montana. Her son will accompany her.

John L. Williams, local fish merchant, spent the week-end in San Francisco.

It's getting pretty hot down Dos Palos way, so Mr. Joseph Hitchcock is going to be around these parts for several months.

Mrs. Minna Steel Harper and Miss Burr were Carmel last week, concluding arrangements for the opening of the North Berkeley Outdoor School here next month.

Fishing Tackle: large variety at Carmel News Co.

The "Grand Canyon" in front of Schweninger's store has been filled up and leveled with the street. Civic pride, Ernie... Wouldn't it be fine if other property owners did the same thing?

Mrs. Samuel O'Connell and her daughter, Mrs. Mifford, left last week for Montana. Since the death of her husband Mrs. O'Connell has been anxious to return to her old home and friends.

The last published report of the local Library shows close to 5000 volumes on the shelves. Soon provision will have to be made for a larger place to keep books, and also a larger reading room.

That Grand and Glorious Feeling

When the long day's work is done and your thoughts begin to drift homeward, wouldn't you be happy, as you headed for the fireside, to know that you were nestled among the healthy fragrance of the pines and the pure air of the sea.

Put a house on that Carmel lot of yours. It will bring you a satisfactory income. Plans and specifications submitted.

Outdoor School to Open on June 1

The new summer home here of the North Berkeley Outdoor School is nearing completion, and will be ready for occupancy at the opening of the vacation school term on Tuesday, June 1.

This conductors of this school have found Carmel-by-the-Sea an unsurpassed location for combining recreation and mental development through the study of its unusual sea life, its flora, and its birds.

The many points of historic interest in the vicinity of Carmel will be visited, making the history of our State a live and absorbing subject. Thus the drives, hikes and picnics will afford profit and pleasure.

Since the summer session here in 1918, having determined that Carmel is the ideal place for their school, the promoters will make it their permanent summer home.

Mrs. Louis Rask will be home-bound for some time as the result of a badly sprained ankle. While crossing Ocean Avenue directly in front of one of the town's oldest business places, she stepped upon some loose planks that have been lying there for months, and was thrown violently to the ground.

New Plan to Care For Rain Water

Carmel, Cal., May 17
Mr. W. L. Overstreet, Editor, Carmel Pine Cone.

My dear sir:

Mr. Roseboom's letter, in your last issue, as to the necessity of curbing, gutters and culverts, is right, of course; but, with the supposition that we can't get culverts, curbing and gutters in time to save the new streets from the next rains, here is a suggestion of a "poor-folks" compromise.
That's my way, you know—I'm always talking too much of what we can't afford here in Carmel.

The idea is not my own, but was worked out by a civil engineer who had struggled with the drainage of a Carmel lot. It is this: Our street drainage is steep east and west, gentle north and south. Our soil is very sandy. If the water can be spread and allowed to run off slowly, most of it will sink in.

Why not, in putting in east and west cross streets, put one culvert at the eastern side of those crossings where Dolores, Lincoln, Monte Verde, Camino Real and Carmelo are already laid? This would carry the water for each block to the gentler drainage of the north and south slope. If it did not dispose of itself satisfactorily there, it could anyhow be disposed of without the heavy scour the long descent to the bay would give.
Being stopped and turned south at each block, it wouldn't get so much head as though carried straight through.

It may be that the expense of even one adequate culvert at a crossing would be impossible at present; but when we come where we can consider it, I think this system of shifting the drainage to the gentler slope at each block, is worth looking into.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Carmel school children are beginning to count the weeks to summer vacation. June 25 is the date —about five weeks more. There are fourteen pupils in the eighth grade scheduled to graduate.

Miss Lucille Turner, sister of John K. Turner, is here from Annheim for a brief visit. She leaves shortly for Berkeley to attend the summer session at the University.

Miss J. M. Culbertson and Miss I. A. Johnson are having an exhibition of Spring landscapes and the wild flowers of California at the Stanford Gallery until May 31.

Plans are under way in Monterey for a fiesta and pageant on June 3 in celebration of the 150th anniversary of the landing of Father Serra at Monterey.

The Carmel Bird Club will picnic on Friday, May 28 on the Carmel River, about five miles up the Carmel Valley, where birds are abundant. Strangers are invited.
Please sign up at the Pine Cone by the 26th, so that arrangements can be made for conveyance.

Annual Report of Arts and Crafts Club

To the President of the Board of Trustees of the Arts and Crafts Club of Carmel, the Recording Secretary presents the following annual report:

There have been eleven regular meetings. Three new members have been added.

Many subjects have been considered and the club has endorsed: The use of American-made goods; The Community Property law; The increase of the Elementary School Fund, and has offered to cooperate in the Restoration of Carmel Mission, and to aid financially in the completion of the Roll of Honor of Carmel War Service.

The club sent a delegate to the State Convention of Women's Clubs in May, 1919, and responded to various other invitations from sister clubs during the year.

Other activities include: Exhibition of the work of Peninsula and visiting artists, in June; Carmel Summer School of Arts and Crafts in July and August; Reception to Sailors in August, in which the public cordially participated and rendered great assistance; Thanksgiving fancy-dress neighborhood party in November; Exhibition of American Water Colors, December 26 January 8.

This report takes no account of the entertainments for which the Hall has been rented, but for which the Club is not otherwise responsible.

The Club has bought three dozen folding chairs, besides paying for its road work, and faces the future with its usual financial stability and hope of continued faithful cooperation of officers and members.

Begins Once More
His Labor of Love

Daniel W. Willard, dean of the Forest Theater stage artists and builders, has begun work upon the stage setting for the "Yellow Jacket. The blue bird or the robin is no surer sign of spring than Mr.
Willard's appearance on the Forest Theater road at this time. He is the first to begin work on the actual staging of the summer program of plays and the last to quit.

This will be Mr. Willard's seventh or eighth year with the Forest Theater, and in that time he has designed and built the stage for "Runnymede," "Sons of Spain," "Pyg-malion and Galatea," "Alice in Wonderland," "Macaire," "Arms and the Man," "Robin Hood," "A Thousand Years Ago," "Prince Happy Heart," and "Yolanda of Cyprus."

The Forest Theatre without Mr.
Willard would be like "Hamlet" without the Prince—impossible.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

In the Superior Court of the County of Monterey, State of California.

In the matter of the guardianship of the persons and estate of Ernest Meadows, Laurence J. Meadows, Alice M. Meadows, and Harry M.
Meadows, Minors.

It appearing to this court from the petition this day presented and filed by Ernestine V. Northup (formerly Ernestine V. Meadows), as guardian of the persons and estate of the minors above-named, praying for an order of sale of certain real estate belonging to said wards, that it is necessary that such real estate should be sold.

It is hereby ordered that the next of kin of the said wards and all persons interested in the said estate, appear before this court on Thursday, the 20th day of May, 1920, at 1:30 p.m., in the courtroom of this court, at the courthouse in the City of Salinas, County of Monterey, State of California, then and there to show cause why an order should not be granted for the sale of such real estate.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published at least once a week for three successive weeks before the said day of hearing, in the Carmel Pine Cone, a newspaper printed and published in said County of Monterey.

Dated April 21st, 1920.

J. A. BARDIN,
Judge of said Superior Court

Argyll Campbell, Attorney for Petitioner.

Message to Carmel From the Holy Land

Dr. C. L. Thudichum of Sebastopol and Captain Albert Baird of Princeton, N. J., drove down on Tuesday and took Mrs. Thudichum and Mrs. Rosella Dennis of Hollywood back with them.

During the past four months the cottage they occupied has been the center of many interesting Bahai meetings, where cosmopolitan visitors and the residents already drawn to the cause of Universal Brotherhood and Peace learned the latest news from the Holy Land.

A significant event was the receipt of a beautiful tablet and letter from Abdul Baha, the head of the movement, from Mount Carmel, Palestine, written at Easter-tide, sending greetings and blessings to Carmel and the friends here. It is the first Tablet to come to Carmel since 1909, when Ali Kuli Khan, Persian Charge d'Affaires at Washington, spent the summer here with his charming family, and gave many talks.

At the recent Paris congress Ali Kuli Khan represented Persia in the League of Nations. It is hoped that he will visit America this year to lay the foundation stone of the first Bahai Temple (outside of Russia) in the world.
Funds for this temple, which will include a place of worship for all religions, have been raised at the congress recently held in New York, and came from all over the world. The temple will be erected in the nine acres already held at Wilmette, Chicago, and will be center of a great institutional endowment for rich and poor alike.
This will be a great factor in ameliorating the sociological and economic conditions at present so disturbed, for the solution of which the Bahai laws were written.
